Welcome!

This study seeks to evaluate what happens when people view video coverage of a crime.

We want to make you aware that this study involves viewing potentially distressing video content. You will be shown CCTV footage depicting a criminal act.

If you think you may feel upset, triggered, or disturbed by scenes of this nature, you are under no obligation to participate. You are free to discontinue your participation at any time with no questions asked and no explanation needed. Even if you do choose to proceed with the study after viewing this notification, you still reserve the right to voluntarily withdraw at any point you wish.

The study should take around 30 min to complete. You are eligible to participate in this study if you are 18 or above, and you have normal or corrected-to-normal vision and hearing. Your responses will be kept confidential.

Results from this survey may be used for future academic research publications. Please note that:

1. Your participation is voluntary.
2. Some questions are mandatory. However, if you do not want to answer them, you can exit the survey.
3. At any time, you may decline further participation without adverse consequences. To do this, simply close out of the survey without submitting your answers.
4. You will remain anonymous in any publications or presentations based on the results of this survey. If you feel you have been treated unfairly, or you have questions regarding your rights as a research subject, you may contact the Chairman of the Committee on the Use of Humans as Experimental Subjects, M.I.T., Room E25-143B, 77 Massachusetts Ave, Cambridge, MA 02139, phone 1-617-253 6787.

By clicking on "I consent" below, you acknowledge: Your participation in the study is voluntary. You are 18 years of age or above. You are aware that you may choose to terminate your participation at any time for any reason. Please select if you consent to begin the survey:

- I consent and agree to participate
- I do not consent, I do not wish to participate
